Letters to the Editor

(Opinions expressed in this publication are not necessarily those of the BHRA. Alternative view points are always welcome.)

Dear Editor,

This year is the Silver Jubilee of a small charity called AFASIC (which stands for The Association For All Speech Impaired Children). A number of children in the village have benefited from the charity, with activities such as horse riding lessons, activity weeks and parties. The week beginning the 2nd of October and ending the 9th October is our National Charity Week and I have undertaken to deliver charity envelopes around Bar Hill. I would very much appreciate some volunteers to help in this task, however few they can deliver. Please contact me if you would like to help or are interested in this charity.

East Anglian Healthlink

Health services and our own health needs are constantly changing. Do you ever have questions on health concerns, yet do not know who to approach for answers? Healthlink is a new service, set up in April 1992 as part of the Patient's Charter, to be a point of contact for the public in East Anglia.

We can provide information on local and regional health services, including where specialist treatments are based. We can help to find the shortest waiting times, and give information on conditions, diseases and treatments. We believe that to be properly informed enables people to take an active part in their own health care. We can also tell you about local and national self-help groups, give health promotion information and advise you on how to complain if things go wrong in the NHS. Our services are provided in the strictest confidence.

If you have a query, or just want to know more about East Anglian Healthlink, telephone Catherine or Jacquelyn on 0800 665544, which is a freephone. The service is open from 10 am to 5 pm Monday to Friday, with an answerphone operating outside these hours. For people who are profoundly deaf we have a voice/minicom system. Alternatively, you could write or drop in and see us at the East Anglian Regional Authority HQ, at Union Lane, Chesterton, Cambridge. We look forward to hearing from you.

Age Concern Cambridgeshire

Age Concern are looking for volunteer helpers at Cherrytrees Day Centre for Elderly People, which is from Monday to Thursday, 10.30 am - 3.30 pm.

We need volunteers to man the trolley shop and act as receptionist/general helper on a regular basis.

If you have a few hours to spare and would like to help, please contact Barbara Page on Cambridge 355948 (daytime), 780933 (evenings).

Now that the Summer Holidays are over and the nights are drawing in, I would like to remind you that the Neighbourhood Watch schemes in the village are growing, but we still need people to start up schemes in some areas. Please contact me if you would like to help.

For the next few months I will be holding a Police "Surgery" at the Farmhouse on the first Tuesday of the month between the hours of 11 am - 12 midday. Please come along if you want some advice or have information for me. If this proves popular then I shall continue it into the new year and beyond.

Thanks, PC Rob Morris (9) 232222

Neighbourhood Watch in Hillcrest

Due to holidays and the busy lives of the three kind people who volunteered to call on each house in Hillcrest it is taking some time to get the above scheme off the ground and operating. By the end of September we hope everyone will have been approached and the majority of households taking part. Because there are so many activities in this village and this means yet more meetings and claims on people's precious spare time, would you please let me know (a) if you would like a meeting for the whole of Hillcrest, or (b.) if you would prefer to choose a street co-ordinator informally amongst yourselves, to attend a meeting to express your views and/or opinions. One object of the meeting apart from recruiting street co-ordinators is the important choice of locations for an official sign at entrances into Hillcrest, apart from the obvious one at the main entrance into Hillcrest from Crafts Way.

If there is not enough interest in holding a meeting the three enthusiastic volunteers and myself will go ahead and organize the signs. We hope to have collected enough money for two or three signs.

At the moment I am acting as your Area Co-ordinator and will welcome your comments.

Bar Hill Nature Reserve

Dear Friends, this month I would like to start off by thanking Margaret Howe for her generous cheque donation to the Nature Reserve. Thanks!

Thanks also to Doug Hughes for the plants from his garden and pond; it's very nice to see people interested in the countryside and the nature reserve in particular. I love to stop and talk to people, even if it's just "hello", so please speak to me if you want to, don't be shy.

This month sees the House Martins, Swallows and Swifts starting to congregate in large groups ready for their long journey back to Africa, after having spent the summer here breeding. Hopefully they'll make it back next year. It's been an incredible year at the reserve for bird species, as you'll see soon, with lots of families of birds being raised.

There are also lots of butterflies in and around the hedgerows - Gatekeepers, Large Whites, Skippers, Peacocks, and Small Tortoiseshells. What with butterflies, birds and small mammals, what a superb habitat a hedgerow makes for wildlife to live in.

It's very nice to see the bench at the top end of the reserve being used. I'm trying to get another one or possibly two benches, but they are quite dear (£350 will cover the bench and base) so if anyone has that sort of money knocking about, why not buy a bench and have your name put on it?

Last month, I mentioned three small dog signs at the reserve; well, two have now been broken off and have disappeared. I have been told who has done it, by a walker in the area, but this person won't be a witness, so there's nothing I can do about it.

Beds and Cambs. Wildlife Trust

Step out along the Ouse Valley Way walk for Wildlife

Have you ever walked along the beautiful Ouse valley Way in Autumn looking at the spectacular seasonal colours and the flocks of migrant birds?

Whatever the answer, the Wildlife Trust for Beds & Cambs. is issuing a challenge to local organizations and individuals to come and join them on an autumnal sponsored walk on Sunday 10th October. There is a choice of 3 or 10 miles, including a nature trail.

It will not be just another sponsored walk, as the purpose is for the walkers to have some fun, get some exercise and learn a little more about wildlife and habitats, whilst on the move! The Ouse Valley Way has been created by Huntingdonshire District Council with the assistance of local volunteers.

The sponsorship money raised by walkers will go towards protecting endangered species such as otters, dormice and wild orchids. It will also assist in the Trust's management of its 86 reserves in Bedfordshire & Cambridgeshire.

Both walks commence with registration at Paxton Pits nature reserve, near St. Neots. Then the walkers are taken by coach to either Buckden Marina (family 3 mile walk) or Houghton Mill (10 mile walk) for the return journey along the Ouse Valley Way.

"We want as many people as possible from all over Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire to come and join this sponsored walk for wildlife and to raise as much money as possible for local wildlife", said Moya Winter, Fundraising manager for the Wildlife Trust, " but most of all we want the walkers to enjoy the scenery and have a great day out."

So why not make a date in your diary to go along and walk for wildlife - step out along the Ouse Valley Way. It only costs £1 to enter (includes cost of coach) and sponsorship forms are available from Moya Winter and Sue Bashford of the Wildlife Trust 0223 846363 or write to them at:

Baby-sitting Circle

Do you have problems finding someone to look after your children while you have an evening out? Your problems are solved!

Bar Hill has two main baby-sitting circles, both run on a "token" system, which means that tokens are used as payment for a sitter - so no money changes hands. The other advantage is that your sitter will always be a mother, who, having children of her own, can be relied upon to act responsibly towards your children.

There is no obligation to baby-sit at any time and you can use the circle as often or as little as you want.

If you would like to know more about joining a circle, please contact either Chris McDermott 782401 or Jacky Amey 780249.

Toddler Group's activities range from messy play, painting, singing, and sand to large activity toys, and much more. Apart from giving you and your child the chance to take part in these activities, it allows you to meet other children of a similar age, and their parents. If you wish to attend any of the above sessions, please contact Cathy Free 782405. Fees are payable termly and there are concessionary fees for single parents or those with special circumstances. (Please note, however, due to a tight budget, we are unable to give refunds for sessions missed due to illness, holidays, etc.). Please feel free to call in on any session before your child joins. Woodcraft Folk

The Woodcraft Folk have always been concerned with environmental issues and encourage an understanding of the need to protect our environment and the use of the world's resources. Whether in a rural or an urban area, members are encouraged to protect the interests of all.

During the summer holiday the Elfins had a wonderful day camp at the site behind the "Black Horse" at Dry Drayton. We would like to thank the publicans for the use of the field, with a special thank you to Jackie for showing the Elfins her "livestock" and giving them the opportunity to milk Snowy the goat and try the milk. Thanks also to Margaret and Brian Carpenter for letting the children help put up their tent, and to Duncan McLeod for checking the sausages did'n't burn too much!

The elfins planted over 100 Foxgloves along the bridle path, with instructions from Nick Richardson.

The following week another good afternoon was had, picnicing, pond-dipping, feeding the ducks and blackberrying at Milton Country Park.

The group starts again on Friday 17th September from 5.45 - 7 pm in the school hall as usual.

To register your child contact Christine Welburn 782978. For further information and to arrange a visit contact Heather Sales 780859. Other leaders are Jo Griffiths and Heather Sinclair.

Colts Football

As I write this article everyone seems to be on their holidays, but professional football kicks off its new season on Saturday, and we are eagerly awaiting the arrival of the fixture lists for our seven Colts League teams. We know that the big kick-off will be in early September, but as yet we do not have the actual date. Details of fixtures will be published every Friday in the "Cambridge Evening News."

All supporters are welcome at any of our games on the Village Green or School Playing Field. Last season saw one team win their League and another reach the Finals of the Knock-out Cup, so this year we intend to do better still, and will, with your support.

Dates for your diary

September 7th - Colts committee meeting in the Village Hall meeting Room, 8.00 pm.

October 9th - Jumble Sale in the school. More details next month.

Don't forget to look out for our fixtures.

This month Geof, the Committee scribe, is having a well earned rest from the newsletter and the task has fallen to me so here goes.....

August has taken on something of a sporting theme with a Ladies Cricket Match, a Wrinklies (over 40) Cricket Match and our own Roman Orgy !!

First, the Ladies Cricket Match. Anne's team of "Merry Maidens" took on a cricket club eleven (actually there were only eight ! But who's counting) and under the careful eye of a totally unbiased Fred Styles the ladies once again secured their annual victory.

The Wrinklies Cricket Match, another annual confrontation of youth and fitness against age and cunning, was a more serious affair and an enthusiastic and knowledgeable crowd were kept from their Sunday afternoon nap as the scoreboard kept ticking over. The only downer on the afternoon's events was Jon York being taken to hospital after receiving a ball in the eye whilst fielding at short leg. Jon is now well but sporting a black & cut eye.

On an altogether different note, our Bar-B-Que evening with a Roman Toga Theme (not, as the unfortunate dyslexic thought - a Goat Party !) Everyone entered the spirit (and drank a few) and a fine array of fancy dress costumes were on display. We even managed a Centurion behind the Bar complete with plumed helmet and a mighty sword ! Well done Jethro ! (Alias Trevor Scotcher).

Future events for your diary on the entertainment front include our next Major Tour. This is a boat cruise to Spain; on a luxury liner no less ! This is open to Club Members at around £70 per head. Details are still being finalised for the Trip so see the notice board or have a chat with Anne Waldron 781955.

On the ale front, those of you who were fortunate enough to attend the Bar-B-Que had the chance to sample the Wadsworth 6X. Unfortunately demand outstripped supply; however, in the not too distant future keep your eyes and taste buds alert for other guest beers - rumour has it Courage Directors and Marston Pedigree could soon be passing through our pumps !

Membership Renewals are now due. £5 per annum. (£3 if you join before 1st November) (Senior Membership will remain at £1 throughout the year).

Finally, please remember it is your Club, so if you have any ideas for future events or functions please drop a line to the Club Secretary or have a word with any Officer or Committee Member, (photographs are on display at the top of the stairs), who will take the necessary action.

I'm now off to the vet's with Geof. Regards for the month and look forward to seeing you.

Happy Hours Bar Hill Senior Citizens club

I mentioned in the last issue that Lillian Gilbert has now unfortunately returned to Addenbrookes'. We are extremely grateful to Ada Milton, Bob and Barbara Kenyon, and of course Sid, for their periodical visits to cheer her up. Poor Lillian has her good days and her bad ones. We do sincerely wish she returns to full health in the not too distant future. All our sincerest wishes go to her for a speedy recovery. It is not the best of worlds looking at four walls and a ceiling all day long, but being the cheerful soul she is, I know she will overcome all these trials and tribulations. I haven't heard any further news about other members' dispositions; both Winn Asprey and Hilda Collett are making good recoveries. Sid popped round to see how our Lucy Coop was progressing, but no news from this front - possibly on holiday. Just a little reminder - let Sid know if you hear of anyone under the weather or who needs any form of help.

By the time you read this, Freddie Styles will have been in and out of hospital for an exploratory examination and drainage of fluid from his knees. So that's where all his brandies drain to - I have often wondered! Get well, Fred, for you do so much for sport in Bar Hill - it's time you got off those "old" pins and gave them a well-deserved rest! Not only the Happy Hours crowd will be thinking of you, but the whole village.

It's remarkable how time flies, but this edition of the BHN signifies our imminent entry into the back stage of 1993. Well at least we have still many things to look forward to - Birthday and Christmas Parties, Outings, etc. Phyllis will be casting her eyes round for some of our talent for the year end entertainment; you are in for a great surprise!

Trips/Outings

Our next trip is to Felixstowe on 15th September and we are arranging two more, one in October which Sid is now considering (possibly Skegness) and no doubt a shopping trip later in the year? Sid has kindly consented to take over as our trips organiser; what more can I say but thanks Sid for your wonderful help in running Happy Hours apart from all your other endeavours. Remember it is up to you good people to suggest what and where you would like to go . Our trip to Yarmouth on 2nd August was most enjoyable - the weather was sunny all the time, although a little breezy..

Blues and Royals Concert

Corn Exchange, Tuesday 10th October.

We have now received confirmation that we have been allocated 25 tickets, but that's it. It is an afternoon performance as usual and always so enjoyable. It will be "First come, first served" so let Sid have your names as soon as possible.

Club Annual Competitions

Our heartiest congratulations to the winners of the 1993 club competitions. Each was presented with a trophy to keep for a year. We will endeavour to maintain this in the years ahead.

Scrabble - Joan Smart; Darts - Jim Platts; Table tennis - Sid Hunt; Dominoes - Gwyn Woolford; Cribbage - John Birley. Our sincerest thanks go to those who organized their particular sections.

Bi-monthly Committee Meetings - Club Constitution

At our meeting on Wednesday, 21st the Club Constitution, which we felt was necessary for an organization such as ours, was presented by Martin Franks. Subject to one or two minor adjustments it was fully accepted and passed by your Committee, The Club Rules are in process of being printed and each member will be given a copy in the very near future. As you all no doubt appreciate the sterling efforts undertaken by Martin Franks since our inauguration,we have agreed that we offer Martin the Presidency of the Club, which we sincerely hope he will accept. Equally so, Tina has been offered an honorary membership

This will ensure, subject to their acceptances, that both will be present for our Annual General Meetings in November of each year - and most welcome they will be. Martin's departure has necessitated a minor change in the roles of our committee members. As mentioned earlier, Sid has kindly consented to take over the organizing of our trips and outings. Phyllis, who originated the Speakers Forum way back in 1989, takes back this onerous task. What would we do without the pair of them?

Final Comments and conclusion

Even though I tend to waffle most of the time, I do try to bear in mind as Secretary that many things have to be said and thanks given to all those contributors who make the club tick over. I would like to record our special thanks not only to those wonderful women preparing the meals, making the salads, cakes and all manner of things, without which our club could not be the success it is; also to those lovely members, Fred (Styles and Collings), Geoff, Margaret and all those others I haven't listed that as soon as the afternoon tea and cakes have been dispensed move off to the kitchen to wash and dry up, dismantle chairs, collect and bag up the cushions, dismantle the table tennis tables, darts boards etc., and of course not forgetting our sales tables "girls" (I know they will love that!). There is no doubt we are a happy and successful club because of the enthusiasm and spirit which goes into it. I would like to finally conclude on people who are not always seen and appreciated for their valuable contribution - I mean of course Len and Lillian. When we set up at about 9.00 am for our Monday meetings, Len is on the road with his car collecting those who find it extremely difficult to get there under their own steam and he takes them home again. When Len does arrive you find him with his hands stuck in a basin of "hot" and I do mean hot water for washing up for the rest of the day. We still cannot fathom out how it is he can really bear such tremendous heat without flinching - we dare not attempt to go near without scalding ourselves; there must be something of Len which we don't know or still can't fathom out. And now to Lillian, last but not least, who was always a very active member of the committee until her legs made her less operative. As soon as Len brings the members by car to the Octagon, it is Lillian who receives them, seats them all near her, attends to their coffee and tea requirements, involves them with various topics until lunch arrives and sees to all their luncheon requirements - I would nominate her as the club Welfare Officer.

Their efforts are so worthwhile, so what can I do but offer our sincerest heartfelt thanks on behalf of you all?
